O God,
the strength of all those who put their trust in you,
mercifully accept our prayers and, because through the weakness of our mortal nature we can do no good thing without you, grant us the help of your grace,
that in the keeping of your commandments
we may please you both in will and deed;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Community Hall update: The photocopier has collapsed ... and we have distributed over three thousand free copies of the magazine and the leaflet about the hall project. A big thank you to everyone who was able to deliver copies and to Richard and Brenda, Graham and Val, and Claire Jones who stapled, folded and allocated the copies produced by the office. Thanks to Pauline for her editing. Let us pray that Matthew: 13 v 8 applies, rather than Matthew: 13, v 4 -7!

Quiz: Our brain teaser for June is available from the White Swan, the Village Stores and the office. Still only £1 to enter. The theme this month is 'names of rivers.' The drawn winner last month was Brenda Boniface.

From Barbara: Dear all. Thank you so much for your card and messages. I am humbled by your prayers and sympathy. I did not realise until after Ian's death that he was so loved, not only by school friends, police colleagues, university fellow students and the people he has helped since becoming an expert witness in identifying dangerous dog types. Claire has been inundated with comments on Facebook (over 100 at the last count) and this too has sustained her. Funeral arrangements are still to be decided but I think the crematorium will be full to bursting! I hope to be with you soon, much love, Barbara.

Prayer Diary: The June prayer diary is in the church. Please take a copy.

Did you know? On this day in 1178, 5 monks in Canterbury reported an explosion on the moon. This was the only known observation ... perhaps a little too much mead had been consumed?

Voyagers: The next Voyagers' meeting is on Wednesday 21st June in the church at 7:30pm. The speaker is John Rew who is a trustee of 'Global Challenge'. Refreshments will be available in the hall after the talk.

Parish Office: The office is open as usual. Contributions to the news sheet by Thursday please.
